

DEFICIENCIES AND DEVIATIONS FORM

All proposal deficiencies and deviations from solicitation specifications must be identified. It is the Respondent's responsibility to identify all deficiencies and deviations. Unless specifically listed, the proposal response is assumed to be in full compliance with the solicitation specifications. If not identified, all requirements of the solicitation must be fulfilled at no additional expense to Tarrant County. If there are deficiencies and deviations relating to the specifications, a Response Attachment denoting the identified variances must be included with response.
