County of Los Angeles COMMERCIALLY USEFUL FUNCTION CERTIFICATION FORM

INSTRUCTIONS: A Certified Local Small Business (LSBE) requesting a Local Small Business Enterprise preference must complete and return this form with their bid/proposal for proper consideration. This form is required for any certified Local Small Business Enterprise prime that will perform an element of work. (Chapter 2.204 -REV 2018)

VENDOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST: Vendor must comply with all conflict of interest laws, ordinances and regulations now in effect or hereafter to be enacted during the term of this Purchase Order/Contract. Vendor warrants that it is not aware of any facts which create a conflict of interest. If Vendor hereafter becomes aware of any facts which might reasonably be expected to create a conflict of interest, it must immediately make full written disclosure of such facts to County. Full written disclosure must include, but is not limited to, identification of all persons implicated and a complete description of all relevant circumstances.

1. BUSINESS INFORMATION (Business submitting bid/proposal)

COMPANY NAME:	VENDOR NUMBER:	PERCENTAGE OF WORK:

2. COMMERCIALLY USEFUL FUNCTIONS (CUF)

A Local Small Business Enterprise is deemed to perform a commercially useful function if the business does all the following:

1. It is responsible for the execution of a distinct element of the work of the contract.
2. It carries out its contractual obligation by performing, managing, or supervising the work involved.
3. It performs work that is normal for its business services and functions.
4. It is responsible, with respect to products, inventories, materials, and supplies required for the contract, for negotiating price, determining quality and quantity, ordering, installing, if applicable, and making payment.
5. It is not further subcontracting a portion of the work that is greater than that expected to be subcontracted by normal industry practices.

An LSBE will not be considered to perform a commercially useful function if the contractor's, subcontractor's, or supplier's role is limited to that of an external participant in a transaction, contract, or project through which funds are passed to obtain the appearance of a LSBE.

Please answer the following questions, as they apply to your company for the goods and/or services being solicited. A response of "No" in questions 1-3 or a response of "Yes" in questions 4-5 may result in your bid/proposal not receiving a preference.

____ Check if not applicable

A. Prevailing Wages

Vendor, its agents, and employees will be bound by and must comply with all applicable provisions of the California Labor Code as well as all other applicable Federal, State, and local laws related to labor including compliance with prevailing wage laws. The services provided in an awarded contract may consist of both prevailing wage and non-prevailing wage work. Prevailing wage work constitutes "public works" as defined in the Labor Code, and is therefore subject to payment of prevailing wages, compliance monitoring and enforcement by the Department of Industrial Relations (DIR).

Vendor must comply with the provisions of Section 1775 of the Labor Code relating to the payment of prevailing wages, including the assessment of penalties determined by the California Labor Commissioner. The Director of the DIR has established the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft, classification, type of worker, or mechanic needed to execute public works and improvements. The current general prevailing wage rates are on file with the DIR and available at <https://www.dir.ca.gov/OPRL/DPreWageDetermination.htm>. Vendor is required to pay its agents and employees the applicable, current prevailing wage rate, is responsible for selecting the classification of workers required to perform this service and will indemnify the County for any claims resulting from their failure to so comply. Vendor must comply with Section 1777.5 of the Labor Code, with respect to the employment of apprentices.

B. Work Records

Vendor must comply with the requirements of Section 1812 of the Labor Code. Vendor must maintain an accurate written record of all employees working on the project each calendar day. The record must include each employee's name, Social Security number, job classification, and the actual number of hours worked.

C. Posting of Prevailing Wage Rates

Vendor must comply with the provisions of Section 1773.2 of the Labor Code. Vendor must post a copy of the prevailing wage rates at the worksite and comply with applicable law including posting of jobsite notices required by 8 Calif. Code Reg. §16451(d):

"This public works project is subject to monitoring and investigative activities by the Compliance Monitoring Unit (CMU) of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, Department of Industrial Relations, State of California. This Notice is intended to provide information to all workers employed in the execution of the Contract for public work and to all Vendors and other persons having access to the jobsite to enable the CMU to ensure compliance with and enforcement of prevailing wage laws on public works projects."

Solicitation No. _____

The prevailing wage laws require that all workers be paid at least the minimum hourly wage as determined by the Director of Industrial Relations for the specific classification (or type of work) performed by workers on the project. These rates are listed on a separate jobsite posting of minimum prevailing rates required to be maintained by the public entity which awarded the public works Contract. Complaints concerning nonpayment of the required minimum wage rates to workers on this project may be filed with the CMU at any office of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (DLSE).

Local Office Telephone Number:

*Division of Labor Standards Enforcement Office
320 W. Fourth Street, Suite 450
Los Angeles, CA 90013
(213) 620-6330*

Complaints should be filed in writing immediately upon discovery of any violations of the prevailing wage laws due to the short period of time following the completion of the project that the CMU may take legal action against those responsible.

Complaints should contain details about the violations alleged (for example, wrong rate paid, not all hours paid, overtime rate not paid for hours worked in excess of 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week, etc.) as well as the name of the employer, the public entity which awarded the public works Contract, and the location and name of the project.

For general information concerning the prevailing wage laws and how to file a complaint concerning any violation of these prevailing wage laws, you may contact any DLSE office. Complaint forms are also available at the Department of Industrial Relations website found at <https://www.dir.ca.gov/dlse/howtofilepwcomplaint.htm>

D. Certified Payroll Records

Vendor must comply with the requirements of Section 1776 of the Labor Code. Vendor and Subcontractors, if any, must furnish certified payroll records directly to the Labor Commissioner (a.k.a. Division of Labor Standards Enforcement) in a format prescribed by the Labor Commission.

E. Subcontractor

Subcontractors, if any, must comply with all prevailing wage requirements as provided in this Section.

Solicitation No.

F. Contractor Registration

Proposer and its subcontractor(s), if any, must submit proof of a valid and active State of California Department of Industrial Relations Public Works Contractor Registration pursuant to Labor Code 1725.5. Pending registrations will not be accepted.

Yes. Proposer and its Subcontractor(s) if any, does meet the registration requirement stated above. (Complete the chart below. Use additional sheet if necessary.)
