Description

This is a sources sought notice prepared in accordance with the solicitation format in Revolutionary FAR Overhaul Part 12, as supplemented with additional information included in this notice.

The Division of Acquisition Policy (DAP) at the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Indian Health Service (IHS) wants to identify businesses that can provide the IHS Division of Clinical and Community Services (DCCS) with services outlined in section (vi) below. In particular, we are seeking responses from qualified Indian Small Business Economic Enterprises and Indian Economic Enterprises as outlined under the Buy Indian Act.

(ii) The solicitation number 75H70426Q00036 is being issued as a Sources Sought Notice.

(iii) A statement that the solicitation document and incorporated provisions and clauses are those in effect through Federal Acquisition Circular 2026-01, effective 03/13/2026.

(iv) Pending receipt of responses from multiple qualified vendors, the Government intends to issue a combined synopsis/solicitation RFQ following the closure of this Sources Sought Notice. The NAICS code for the requirement is 611699, with a small business size standard of $16.5 Million.

(vi) This requirement is to provide Emergency Medical Services and Emergency Medical Technician training. The expectation is that the contractor will engage in a range of activities that will initiate and solidify all the core training courses that meet national certification and recertification requirements and standards of national, state, and accrediting/certifying organizations. Remote delivery of training is acceptable.

*See Performance Work Statement attached for additional requirement information.

*Please ignore the designation of Rockville, MD as the Place of Performance on www.SAM.gov, as a location is now required for posting. Contractor place of business, etc., is acceptable.

(vii) The Period of Performance will start from the Date of Award through September 30, 2027. Option Periods are possible. The acceptance term for the services and deliverables to be provided is FOB Destination.
