Description

The Holm Center is responsible for commissioning 80 percent of USAF officers. We need to be able to validate learning outcomes in both paper-based and online testing. Paper-based is required when internet connectivity is poor/down on the OTS campus, whereas online assessments can be utilized when internet connectivity is functional. This system must interface with existing test bank architecture (ParTest and ParScore) to maintain test item statistics for our existing test banks, and to retain our historical assessment data. Please be aware that this is just a Request for Information and no contract will result of this inquiry.
